the luxury and elegance of leather....

There's nothing quite like leather. Its rich texture, beautiful aesthetic qualities and simply the unmistakable scent of leather create an ambience which radiates sheer luxury. Little surprise then that we have made it one of the hallmarks of the new Volvo 480 GT.

The 480 GT is a beautifully crafted limited edition coup evoking the timeless pleasures of stylish motoring. A limited build of only 250 cars ensures exclusivity and even then you will find no two the same. A specially commissioned artist has given each car's interior its own individual character with a unique hand-printed geometric pattern etched on the surface of the supple-smooth leather.

The unique interior styling of the Volvo 480 GT is superbly complemented by all the benefits of modern driving technology.

From the start, our aim was to create a car which was as comfortable inside as it was good looking from the outside. So part of its evolution stemmed from a recognition of the benefits of enhanced climatic control. A sophisticated air-conditioning system effectively regulates the temperature throughout the car's interior to provide a constant and pleasant driving environment.

The exterior is just as impressive. The classic coupe design, made all the more outstanding with the addition of 15" multi-spoke alloy wheels, with wide low profile tyres and advanced independent front suspension. The electronically managed 2.0 litre multi-point fuel injection engine - its low end torque provides superb pulling power at low engine speeds for safe, effortless overtaking - ensures from the start an exhilarating and rewarding driving experience. Available in either Burgundy Pearl Metallic or Racing Green Metallic, the Volvo 480 GT is made to stand out from the crowd.
